Program	AEI-ASEM SUMMER SCHOOL 2023: Civilisational Dialogue for a Sustainable Future
Host	Asia-Europe Institute, Universiti Malaya
Program Date and Time	31 July – 13 August 2023 (Physical daily activity.)
Expected Outcomes	The AEI-ASEM Summer School is an ongoing initiative to enhance the balanced mobility of students, researchers and academics between Asia and Europe in line with one of the decisions of ASEMME 4 in May 2013, Kuala Lumpur. The AEI-ASEM Summer School is driven by various eclectic approaches that emphasize on interdisciplinary learning, intercultural exchanges, cultural immersion, and appreciation to inclusiveness, cultural diversity and harmony-building in the Asian region. Lecture modules are assimilated with a strategic mix of activities, field trips and knowledge/skill building activities to provide practical and valuable learning experiences to all participants. At the end of this course, participants are able to: - Compare and differentiate the issues which serve as barriers to social and sustainable development. - Assess the use of innovation and Green Technology for sustainable practices. - Demonstrate awareness of different civilizational experiences in dealing with contemporary social and development issues.
